Conditions of Entry

- No entry will be received from any person disqualified by the Poultry & Pigeon authorities during the period of such disqualification. Should any such entry by accident be accepted, it shall, whenever discovered, be deemed void, and the entry fee returned
- No bird shall be entered by or in the name of any person who is disqualified, or which is not, at the time of entry, the bona-fide property of such person. No sale for a limited period, or borrowing will be allowed
- No bird entered in a wrong class will be allowed to compete, and the entry fee in respect of such birds will be forfeited
- The Committee reserves the right of refusing or cancelling any entry without giving reason for doing so
- The decision of the judge shall be accepted as final
- No trimming (except allowed under the standard of or adopted by, the Club) plucking, dyeing of feathers, etc., or any other fraudulent practice will be allowed, and every exhibitor will be held responsible for the condition in which his exhibit appears in the pen
- All protests will be considered by the Local Committee as soon as possible after the lodgment, and their decision shall be final for this Show, and the Local Committee of the Poultry & Pigeon Club may, if they think it fit, apply the penalties mentioned in the following regulations
- Whenever any bird has been disqualified, the Committee may also disqualify the exhibitor thereof from exhibiting in future Shows of this Society and may forfeit all prizes awarded to him. The Poultry & Pigeon Clubs may further disqualify the exhibitor for such a period as they may appoint, and the bird may also be further disqualified from being entered at any such Show
- Should any exhibit that has been awarded a prize be disqualified, the next in order in the judge's award book shall not necessarily be entitled to the prize, but the matter shall be determined by the Committee
- No late Entries will be accepted
